

Back in the Day...

Discovering Your Oxford Roots: Paths to the Past

Tuesday, May 18 at 2:00 PM

An on-line presentation hosted free of charge for all district residents over 50 years of age by the Ingersoll 50+ Activity Centre. (You do NOT need a Centre membership for this event.)

Your Guide:

Vickie Brenner

Digital Literacy and Local History Technician

Ingersoll Library

A treasure trove of Oxford County's past is available through Oxford County library resources, whether you are a serious researcher or simply curious about family, people, places and events of long ago. Better still, much is as close as your computer. This is your opportunity to discover these paths back in time. A question and answer period follows.

Reserve by May 14 at 519-485-3869

This is a Zoom event. After you register, you will be sent an email with a link. At presentation time, simply click on the link and you will be connected.