

In recognition of Black History Month
Meet Oxford County Artist
Duane Kumala-Thomas
at Ingersoll Library

Saturday, February 18
1:00-3:00PM

Drop-in to Ingersoll Library & talk with local artist Duane Kumala-Thomas.

Discover the vision behind an Ingersoll art installation recognizing significant dates in town history.

Join local historian, Heather Rennalls & explore her knowledge of Ingersoll's black history.

Ingersoll Town Councillor, Khadijah Haliru, will speak about her story from Nigeria to Brampton to Ingersoll.

Special Guests including: Town Councillor, Mike Bowman, Oxford Caribbean Canadian Association and more.

Duane Kumala-Thomas
created this art
installation
in collaboration with:
FedDev Ontario
SWOTC
Ingersoll BIA
Cochran's Landscaping
OSR Inc
Highlander Studios